

Section 5: Appeals, Court of Court of Appeals

The purpose of this appropriation is for this court to review and exercise appellate and certiorari jurisdiction pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Georgia, Art. VI, Section V, Para. III, in all cases not reserved to the Supreme Court of Georgia or conferred on other courts by law.

Program Overview
Performance Measures:	FY 2012	FY 2013	FY 2014	FY 2015

Average caseload per judge for cases filed	289	286	262	269
Summary of Activities: The Court of Appeals is the intermediate appellate court in Georgia and is the court of first review for many civil and criminal cases decided in the trial courts. The purpose of such a review is to correct legal errors or errors of law made at the trial level, not to alter jury verdicts or the outcome of bench trials. The Court of Appeals has twelve judges who are assigned to one of four panels made up of three judges each.
Target Population: The Court of Appeals has statewide appellate jurisdiction of all appeals from the major levels of the trial courts except those involving constitutional questions, land title disputes, the construction of wills, murder, election contests, habeas corpus, extraordinary remedies, divorce and alimony and cases where original appellate jurisdiction lies with the Supreme Court of Georgia.
Location: The Court of Appeals is located in Atlanta, GA.
Delivery Mechanism: Once a case is assigned to a panel, the judges review the trial transcript, relevant portions of the record, and briefs submitted by the attorneys for the parties. Panels also hear oral arguments in a small number of cases. Panel decisions are final unless one judge dissents. Then the case is reviewed by a panel of seven judges. Under certain circumstances, a case may be reviewed by the full court.
Timing: The Court is open to the public for business all state business days and the Court issues orders and opinions daily. The Court of Appeals has three terms each year: January, April, and September. Each term lasts approximately three and a half months. Decision must be completed within two terms.
